Excerpt of pertinent information:

The attached (no enclosure for Registry) was handed to an officer of the Department on march 9, 1948 by Charles Davila who described it as a translation of the views which he expressed in writing last fall to General Radescu relative to the organization of a Rumanian National Committee.

Davila said that Radescu made known the views of this communication to the Buzesti-Cretzianu faction and Davila feels that the animosity of that group toward him stems from this circumstance because his position is essentially a challenge to the pretensions of Buzesti.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
